

XI International Festival of Dance Theatre ZAWIROWANIA

XI edition of the Festival will bring together the most outstanding contemporary dance ensembles, with a star on the world stage of contemporary Compagnia Zappalà Danza among them. Anyone who follows the trends of social, political, reflected in the works of contemporary art, can not miss this unique event. During the five days of the Festival there will be a full meeting with Italian culture - represented by five fascinating performances from Florence, Naples, Pisa and Sicily.

The objective of accompanying the creation of the program was to enable the XI Festival in Poland presentation of what is most important and most promising in the latest dance theater - that's why we decided to invite choreographers of the younger generation shaping the global artistic trends. During closing of the Night Young Choreographers Festival will see performances by artists from China, France, Israel and Vietnam.

As part of the XI International Festival of Dance Theatres turmoil plan to not only performances, but also the events directly involving the Warsaw audience. There are dance workshops for all volunteers and meeting with our festival guests.

We enable direct knowledge of artists, exchange ideas and views - not only in the dance, but also the culture of their respective countries.

International Festival of Dance Theatres turmoil is not just a dance event - already firmly entrenched on the cultural map of Warsaw, but also the upcoming project people from all over the world, bringing with it an opportunity to learn and develop - not only in the field of dance.
